Order Denying Emergency Motion

[ECF No. 331]

9 Defendant Joshua Sadat Washington was convicted of interference with commerce by 10 robbery, brandishing a firearm in furtherance of a crime of violence, and transportation of stolen
11 property after a jury found him guilty of the armed take-down robbery of a local jewelry store.¹
12 He was sentenced to 204 months in custody and has appealed. On January 3, 2019, Washington 13 filed an Emergency Motion Requesting Order to Travel, asking the court to direct the Bureau of 14 Prisons to allow him to travel to his designated BOP facility with his legal documents.² The 15 government has opposed the motion, advising this court that Washington sought the same relief
16 from the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. The appellate court construed his motion as a request 17 for an extension of the deadlines he faces in his appeal and granted it to that extent.³ Because the 18 relief granted by the appellate court appears to have resolved the concerns that Washington raises 19 in this motion, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Washington's emergency motion [ECF No.
20 331] is DENIED as moot.
